

Love Others

You have heard that it was said, "You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy." But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.... For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have?

Matthew 5:43-44, 46

Write or type your answers. Writing your answers helps you to meditate more deeply on the question, organize your thoughts, and provide a visible way for you to review and reflect on how scripture applies to your specific situation.

1. According to Matthew 5:43-44 & 46, what are we to treat our opponents? How might this impact the conflict you find yourself in today?
2. According to the 1 John passage on the back of this bookmark, what is the warning for those unwilling to love their neighbor? How does this apply to your present conflict?
3. While God doesn't command to "like" one another, He does call us to love each other. Review 1 Corinthians 13 and list what it means to love each other, even when we're in conflict
4. According to John 3:16, how has God responded to you even when you struggle to love others?
