Coaching People to Reconcile

An Online Practicum

Handout for Lesson 2

Use this handout to prepare for discussion questions. You'll answer them either in the chat box or in small group breakout rooms.

Homework Assignment from Last Time

- Complete your prerequisite study and online forum responses
- Review Chapters 1-3 in your practicum manual
- Identify a transition from page 29 that you would like to try in role play. Why did you select that one?
- Share at least one Aha or question with the group

You'll have 6
minutes for this exercise.

Demonstration Role Play 3: Apply Scripture (Case #1 page 98)

Be prepared to answer these questions in a poll or chat box after the demonstration:

- Poll (True or False):
 - The coach argued with Kyle.
 - The coach read a Bible passage to show Kyle he was wrong.
 - The coach patiently listened to each of Kyle's answers as he repeated his blame-shifting.
 - The coach asked Kyle to read a Bible passage and apply it to himself.
 - The coach explained how the passage fit Kyle's situation.
 - The coach used silence to allow Kyle to reflect on how to apply the Bible passage to his own situation.
- What made the coach's silence so effective?
- How did the coach provide comfort and hope to Kyle?

Participant Role Play 3: Apply Scripture (Case #2 page 100)

Instructions:

- You will be placed into rooms in pairs, one coach and one party
- First, determine who is coach and who is the party
- Coach role plays him/herself, as a party, men role play Robert while women role play Emily
- Coach, practice drawing out the story with questions while parties respond to questions
- You have 12 minutes for this exercise; 9 minutes for role play and 3 minutes for feedback
 - You will receive broadcast message to stop the role play & start the feedback
 - Coach: What I did well was ... / One thing I'd do different is ...
 - Party: What I thought you did well was ... / One suggestion I have is ...
 - A one-minute timer will be presented 60 seconds before you are brought back to main room

You'll have 12
minutes for this exercise.

Be prepared to answer these questions in the chat box or a poll after the role play:

- Poll: How comfortable are you finding an appropriate scripture passage? (1: Comfortable, 5: Ill-equipped)
- Poll: When scripture was utilized, were they passages of Law or Gospel, or both?
- Poll: When scripture was utilized, did the coach read, or the party, or both?
- Poll: When the party recognized their sin, did the coach proclaim God's forgiveness?

Idols

Be prepared to answer these questions in the chat box:

- What things do we turn into gods in our heart?

Video: King David's Servants

Be prepared to answer these questions in small group discussion after the video:

- What actions did David take to conceal his sins?
- How does Proverbs 28:13 address our attempts to cover up our sins?
- What other sins did David commit?
- What did David's sins reveal about his idols?
- What was David willing to sacrifice in order to serve his idols?
- How is David's slide into these sins similar to our own struggle?

You'll have 10 minutes for this exercise.

Self-Examination Exercise (page 47)

Instructions:

- Think of a specific conflict . . .
- Identify the idol(s)
 - Improper desires for physical pleasure
 - Pride and arrogance
 - Love of money or material possessions
 - Fear of man
 - Good things that I wanted too much
- What or whom I sacrificed or executed
- What will be the end result if idolatry remains unchecked?

You'll have 3 minutes for this exercise.
